"CCS Fine Arts...Performing for the Glory of God"

NOTES FROM THE DIRECTOR

Welcome to our production of The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe! This timeless story is not just a magical adventure—it is a powerful allegory of Christ’s love and sacrifice. Aslan, the Great Lion, represents Christ, who gives his life in place of Edmund’s betrayal, mirroring Jesus’ ultimate sacrifice for humanity. Just as Aslan’s death brings life and hope to Narnia, Jesus’ death and resurrection offer us the gift of forgiveness and new life.

Today’s performance invites you to reflect on this profound message of grace, redemption, and love. It’s a reminder that no matter what we have done, we are always offered the chance to be forgiven and restored. We are so excited to share this journey with you, and we hope it sparks meaningful conversations about love, sacrifice, and the hope we can all find in Christ. Thank you for being here, and enjoy the adventure in Narnia!
