

NOTES FROM THE DIRECTORS

Ezekiel 34:11: For thus says the Lord God: Behold, I, I myself will search for my sheep and will seek them out.

Jeremiah 29:13: You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.

Finding Nemo is not just about fish in the "Big Blue World" but a child seeking his Father and a Father desperately pursuing his son. Throughout the story, Nemo sometimes thinks he doesn't need his Dad like some think they don't need Jesus. Marlin, on the other hand, is going to great lengths to find his son who is lost. Just like the Lord pursues us, loves us, and saves us. Along this great adventure and many obstacles, new friends are made, chosen families are created, hard lessons are learned, and perseverance prevails. The Father Marlin, is reunited with his son and Nemo finds that his Dad is pretty amazing and loves him unconditionally. All this to say that because the Lord pursues us, seeks us out, and will find us, we as his sheep, realize when we give ourselves completely to the Father and allow him to guide us, we find out that seeking the Heavenly Father is the only path we ever need.
